

For All Women with Cancer

Guest Speaker: Leslie Heron, ARNP

Cancer & Sexuality

Description: We are honored to welcome Leslie Heron, ARNP, back for the third time with a special presentation on Cancer & Sexuality! Leslie has worked as a nurse for over 30 years, with more than 20 of those as a nurse practitioner. She has seen patients at the Seattle Cancer Care Alliance's Survivorship Clinic since 2012. She has presented on topics related to cancer and sexuality for the Puget Sound Oncology Nurses, the Oncology Nursing Society, the Fred Hutchison Symposium on Cancer Survivorship, and various other educational events. This talk has received EXCELLENT feedback here in the past, and we are thrilled to have her back!

Who: This talk is open to ALL women with cancer

What: Sexuality and intimacy can be sensitive issues for women during and after cancer treatment. Physical, emotional, and hormonal changes can impact sexuality and intimate relationships. This presentation will provide a forum to learn about and discuss:

- Body image issues
- Loss of interest in sex
- Dating and cancer
- How to talk to your partner about sexual issues
- Tips, product recommendations, and resources
- Medication side effects
- Physical challenges to intimacy

When: Tuesday, July 10th, 2018 from 5:00p.m. to 7:00p.m.

Where: Providence Regional Cancer Partnership, 1st Floor, Conference Rm A/B

Facilitator: Patient Support Services

Information and Registration: No registration needed, no cost to attend. For more information, call Justine Colombo at 425.297.5521
